Are you interested in any of Mr. Edward Auten, Jr.'s other originations? If so, write for a price. Mr. Brand's new ones will be exceptional. Ask. Prices will be gladly quoted on any of Mr. Franklin's new ones; or those of Mr. Andrews, Mr. H. P. Sass, Mr. Jacob Sass, Cottage Gardens, Dr. J. H. Neeley, Mr. W. L. Gumm, or any peony in commerce in this country. Your inquiries are invited.

The following exceptionally fine peonies will be released soon: Col. Nicholl's Mrs. Livingston Farrand, the purest, most vivid pink in existence; Harry F. Little, a Gold Medal white of splendid form; Mr. Little's Onondaga, the great new red; Mr. Franklin's Will Rogers, another very fine white.

THE AMERICAN PEONY SOCIETY. This society has for its object the dissemination of information about the peony through its quarterly publication The American Peony Society Bulletin, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in the Peony to join its ranks. The annual dues are three dollars, and memberships begin always with January 1 of each year. In order to help increase its membership, I will present a free membership to all who send me an order amounting to $25 or more. This only applies to new members. If your order does not amount to $25 a credit of ten per cent of your order will be allowed on a membership. That is, if your order amounts to ten dollars, if you will add $2, a membership will be given you; or, if you prefer, you may add three dollars to any order and your membership will be forwarded. These memberships will begin either with January 1, 1936 (in which case you will receive the Bulletins for this year only), or with January 1, 1937, as you may prefer.

This Society has published a Manual of the Peony which contains all necessary information about peonies, varieties and culture. The price is $3.15. You may use your credit of ten per cent on this if you prefer it to a membership in the Society.

TREE PEONIES

The following list of twenty-five tree peonies is offered as embracing a collection of very fine ones. If you are interested in other varieties write and prices will be furnished.

NOTE: Tree peonies will be shipped by express collect from the grower from whose I purchase them. They will usually be from five-inch pots, though some may be field grown. But propagation in pots is the usual procedure. When more than one plant is ordered a deduction of fifty cents a root may be made from the total price.
